"And he shall turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers".....

Malachi 4:6

Elijah must have whispered unto me, for as long as I can remember, my heart has been turned toward my fathers.

It is hoped that this booklet will help others to appreciate the efforts of our pioneer forefathers to establish us in this goodly land.

The life of this pioneer couple was filled with many trials and hardships. Theirs was a struggle to build a home and a country out of a wilderness. The blessings of which we today have inherited. Let us not forget them. "It is a desirable thing to be well descended, but the glory belongs to our ancestors."

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The compilation of information in this booklet would have been impossible were it not for the diligent efforts of many of our relatives. Space will not permit the enumeration of all, but three of our relatives deserve special thanks for their efforts:

Bess Hester Barnett (#386) 2437 - 31st St. Moline, Illinois 61265

Maud Barnett Thorn (#236) 42 No. 1 East, Springville, Utah 84663

Richard Harvey Barnett (#264) 1354 Marian Way, Sacramento, Calif. 95818

Each blood descendant of James Otis Barnett and Elizabeth (Betsy) Keller has been given a number. If the sign (+) follows the number, it means that that particular child is also listed later on in numerical order as the head of a family. They can easily be traced by turning to the corresponding number found in the margin at the left side of each page.

Many of the branches are not complete. Being human, there are probably many errors, but it is also my contention that a poor attempt is better than none at all.

1. James Otis Barnett born 1774 in the State of Virginia. Little is known about his early life. Relatives state that he grew up near the vicinity of Richmond, Virginia and that his people were from or of English extraction. One of his grand daughters stated that he was descended from the Indian Princess, Pocahontas, but this is not proved. Other early relatives state that this family was of Jewish origin, but this theory might have been from his wife's side of the family.

The first document relating to James Otis Barnett is that of his marriage on 6 June 1797 in Washington County, Kentucky to Elizabeth Keller (Kellar). There is a James Barnett listed in the 1800 Census return of Washington Co., Kentucky.

Shortly after this they seemed to set up housekeeping in nearby Harrison County, Kentucky, and lived there until the year 1809 when they moved to Harrison County, Indiana. The farm they lived on was located 10 miles from Corydon and 5 miles from the Ohio River.

In the fall of 1827, they moved their family to Clay Co, Indiana and settled on a farm near Jordan Creek.

The Ind. Mag. of History Vol 56, p. 339, lists James Barnett as one of the first families in the County of Clay, in 1830. He was living next to his son, Peter and Mathias John Killion, a son-in-law.

It is not known at what date they left Clay County, but the 1840 Census of Putnam County lists James and his wife living in Warren Township. His sons David and John appear to be living near by.

In 1849 when his youngest son, Lewis, died, the young daughter-in-law, Lucretia, widow, moved into the home of James Otis & Elizabeth Barnett with her two children, John F. aged 10 and Nancy age 8. (1850 Census)

An early history of Putnam County (1879) states that James Barnett was an early settler of Washington Township, Putnam Co. The 1841 tax list of this township does not list him there, but 6 of his sons were located there, namely, James Edward, Lewis, Solomon, Peter, David, and John Wesley.

The last document listing James Otis Barnett was the 1850 Census of Putnam Co. taken on the 1st of June of that year. Between this date and the end of the year James Otis must have passed away as relatives stated that he died at the age of 76 which would have been 1850. He is probably buried in the Barnett Cemetery near Reelsville, Putnam Co, Ind, but many of the older grave markers have been destroyed by cattle and hogs and no marker remains.

Two letters of early relatives indicate that James Otis Barnett was in the American Revolution. He is also listed in the book, "American Revolutionary Soldiers buried in Indiana" p. 4, (ref. Thelma Murphy of Indianapolis, Ind.) but I doubt if these two above accounts are accurate since the 1850 Census establishes his birthdate as 1774. This would only allow him to be 9 years of age by the time the Revolution ended. A rather young age for a regular trooper. The History of Putnam Co, 1966 lists military soldiers buried in the county, but James Otis is not mentioned. Perhaps it was his father who was the revolutionary soldier. Further research will be needed to establish this.

There was supposed to be a family fortune somewhere in England as the family owned and operated a silk mill there. One of the grandsons of James Otis, Walter Clay (# 74), son of Solomon went back to England to do some research into this story, but had to return to America for lack of funds.

His wife, Elizabeth (Betsy) Keller was born 1780 in North Carolina. She was a daughter of John Keller and Elizabeth or Jerusha Barrett. Little is known about her early life. Her father was German and her mother Welsh. (So stated in some early family letters.) Sometimes between 1790 and 1797, the family left North Carolina and settled in Kentucky. The Kellers seemed to follow the Barnett family quite closely into Harrison Co, Ind., Putnam Co, Ind. and on to Wabash Co.

Her brother, Jonathan, visited the family in Putnam Co. He had an appointment from the Governor among the Miami nation of Indians. John and Elizabeth Keller had 13 children: (correct order of birth not known): 1) Sarah; 2) Elizabeth (Betsy) 3) Peter; 4) Jerusha; 5) John; 6) Isaac; 7) James; 8) Pevy; 9) Jonathan born 1790; 10) Anthony; 11) Christian; 12) Mary; 13) Jane Barbary

After the death of James Otis Barnett, his widow, Elizabeth (Betsy) lived around with some of her children, but spent a large share of her time with her second son, John Wesley Barnett on a farm which now belongs to Jim Rollins (1938).

The house crowned a hill above the old Barnett Mill on the Walnut River near the old Barnett Cemetery.

She is described by some of her grandchildren, who were interviewed in 1938, as being a short plump woman. They said she was particularly noted for the lovely button holes she made. She was very neat and always wearing a kerchief around her neck and a white cap on her head. She did the dishes and helped around the house at her son John's home.

When Solomon's wife, Eliza Lister, died in about 1859, it is supposed that his mother cared for some of his little ones until he could make other arrangements for their care. She would have been then 83 years of age.

(The Lanes ran a ferry across the Ohio River). Malinda was born 13 June 1805 in Harrison Co., Ky.; she died at Reelsville, Putnam Ind. Oct 1858, and is bur. in the Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Reelsville, Ind.; md. (2) Nancy _____, who was born 1817 in North Carolina.

After David's marriage to Malinda, they lived for 7 years in Harrison Co, Ind. In 1828 they moved to Putnam Co., Ind. and settled on the Walnut River where he went into a partnership with his brother, James Edward in the distilling business from 1830 to 1834. From 1834 to 1842, these two brothers formed another partnership and built a water powered grain mill on the Walnut River. This mill was the inspiration for Paul Pickett's poem of "The Old Barnett Mill".

THE OLD BARNETT MILL

by Paul Pickett

When I was just a little lad, a long time ago,
Of all the childish pleasures that I used to know,
The chiefest one among them to set my heart athrill
Was when I went with Grandad to the Old Barnett Mill.
The Old Barnett Mill
The Old Barnett Mill
The Old Barnett Mill

In the old farm wagon upon bags of corn and wheat,
Not a king in all his glory ever had a finer seat,
Jostling, rattling o'er the bridges; across the valley, up the hill---
Soon below like a prairie castle
I could see the Old Barnett Mill.
The Old Barnett Mill
The Old Barnett Mill
The Old Barnett Mill

O'er the dam the water roaring carried romance in its sound Everywhere lurked high adventure as the wheels went around.
I could hear the pixies singing; Hear their laughter trill---
And at times the ogres chuckled at the Old Barnett Mill.
The Old Barnett Mill
The Old Barnett Mill
The Old Barnett Mill

The old mill is vanished and the mill pond too;
Scarce a stone is left to mark the place they knew.
Yet I carry in my memory a lovely picture still,
Of the dear old, sweet old picture, of the Old Barnett Mill---
The Old Barnett Mill
The Old Barnett Mill
The Old Barnett Mill
Its ancient mystic magic enthalls me still.

Both brothers also owned farm land in Putnam County. David and Malinda made a settlement for property 20 July 1839 and again 17 Dec 1846. The 1840 Census shows David living on a farm between his father, James Otis, and his brother John.

In the winter of 1844 David and his brother James Edward started for Louisville, Ky. to market 500 hogs. When they arrived they found the market so poor they decided to butcher the hogs and take them down river to New Orleans. They butchered and salted 50 hogs a day and in December, with the Ohio River full of ice, they started for New Orleans.

Before leaving they sent their mother-in-law, Ann Lane, back to Putnam County to stay with Malinda and Eliza, (the two Lane sisters who had married the Barnett brothers), both women were expecting babies at the time. After marketing the salted hams at New Orleans, the brothers returned by horseback arriving in Putnam Co, the last day of Feb. 1845. David's 6th child was born while his father was on this marketing journey.

If David and Malinda were married in ^{21 Oct 1824} ~~1821~~, they possibly have other children born in the 1820's in Harrison Co, Ind. which were not mentioned in the 1840 or 1850 Census of Putnam Co.

David moved his family to Illinois in 1863.

3. John Wesley Barnett (James Otis¹)

born 21 Oct 1799 at Harrison Co, Ky; died 6 Aug 1877 at Putnam Co. Ind.;
md 28 Mar 1822 at Corydon, Harrison Co. Ind.; to Rachel J. Ellis, born 11 July 1803 at Louisville, Jefferson Co., Ky. Her father was John Ellis and her mother was a Meriday. Rachel died 8 Nov 1877 three months after her husband and was buried beside him in the Barnett Family Cemetery, Putnam Co., Indiana.

John and Rachel began their married life near Corydon, Harrison Co, Ind. where they lived with John's elder brother, David until about 1828 when they all came to Putnam County to be with their father who had emigrated there previously.

John bought land in Putnam Co., 2 Mar 1828. He purchased 160 acres of land for $1.75 per acre. It is claimed that he lived on this same farm until the time of his death. He added to his property until he owned 850 acres of land near Reelsville, Ind.

Family records state that John's father-in-law, John Ellis walked to Harrison Co., Ind with $900.00 in his belt. He had at least 2 sons in addition to his daughter Rachel. One son, Noah Ellis, had a daughter Katie Ellis who md a man named Carl Carby and had one daughter. The second son, Israel Ellis, had five children, namely: John, Isaac, Dianna, Katie, and Rachel.

born abt 1801 in Harrison Co. Kentucky; md. John Deal. John was a blacksmith and a farmer. They lived in Bowling Green, Clay Co, Ind. for four years then moved to Putnam Co, and lived near the Barnett Mill. They moved west into Iowa in the year 1850 where both Sally and John died. John was in a partnership in the blacksmith work with his brother, Andrew, who married Sally's younger sister, Mary (Polly) Barnett.

Children: Correction

30 + I Daniel Deal, born abt 1820; md his cousin, Millinda or Marinda Barnett, eldest daughter of John Wesley Barnett (#21).

5. Peter Barnett (James Otis¹)

born 1804 at Harrison Co, Ky.; md 1828 to Sarah Sally Lewis. He first met Sally Lewis, born 1811 in Ky., when lived at Middlebury near Clay City, Ind., when she was visiting her sister at Bowling Green where Peter was living. He was living in Clay City before 1830 where he had a grocery store and dry goods business. He also lived at Bowling Green. He later moved to Putnam Co., and resided in or near Pleasant Gardens (so named by Abraham Lincoln). Peter was a large heavy set man.

Early land records of the county show Peter and Sarah buying land 16 Feb 1838. They deeded land to John W. Witty 3 Apr 1840. The 1840 Census of Putnam Co., indicates that Peter was living near his youngest brother, Lewis and elder brother, John in Jefferson Township. He received another piece of land from his brother James Edward 21 Jan 1842.

Shortly after this, Peter removed his family out west into the State of Iowa. He sold land in Putnam County as a resident of Iowa Territory, Jefferson Co., in 1843, but within 3 years he had moved to the county just west. He was a resident in Wapello County, Iowa in 1846.

At the close of the Mexican War, Peter moved to Ft Des Moines, Iowa. The year 1853 marked the "great land rush" into western Iowa and the History of Harrison County Iowa lists both Peter and his brother, Solomon as entering that domain in that year among the first group of settlers. They took land in section 5.

Peter kept a boarding house hotel, the very earliest in the village. (This was the town of Magnolia). It stood just north of the "Raymond" and was operated from 1854 to 1860. Some of the early settlers told of the kind old landlady and her excellent cooking. Al Harvey, an early pioneer of Harrison Co. Iowa never tired of telling of this famous pioneer place and its "right good cheer". (p. 337 Hist. of Harrison Co, Iowa). Peter was a large, heavy set man. Perhaps this explains the reason why.

In 1853-54 at Magnolia, a Methodist Episcopal Class was formed under the guidance of the Rev. H.A. Tarkington with a class including, Mr. & Mrs Josiah Cron, Mrs. David Young, Mr. & Mrs. Peter Barnett, and Miss Sylvia Harris (later Mrs. La Porte). "On account of some trouble between the pastor and members of the class, the organization soon went down."

The 1860 Census of Harrison County, Iowa lists Peter & Sarah living in Calhoun Township still in the hotel business.

It is not known when Peter left Iowa, but family records indicate he moved on to a place near Kansas City, where he was engaged in the grocery and dry goods business. He also worked for the postal department. His place and date of death are not known.

Later they settled in Putnam County. In 1866 the family moved to Illinois, west of Tuscola. John remarried and had 14 more children. Md. (2) Lucinda_____.

9. James Edward Barnett (James Otis¹)

Born 4 June 1811 at Harrison Co., Ind.; died 5 June 1893 at Montezuma, Parke, Ind.; md (1) 30 Sep 1830, Elizabeth or Eliza Lane, sister of Malinda who married David Barnett, eldest brother of James Edward. Elizabeth was a daughter of Thomas and Ann Lane of Harrison Co, Ind.

James Edward came to Putnam Co., Ind when he was abt 18 with his father. He returned to Harrison Co. to marry (1) Eliza Lane, his childhood sweetheart, whom he brought home with him on horseback, a distance of 125 miles. They settled on the Eel River where James Edward purchased a saw mill which he operated for 38 years. (This was a combination saw and grist mill).

Land records indicate that James Edward and his wife Eliza received land in Putnam Co., July 24, 1839 and again 16 Feb 1847. On 21 Jan 1842, he deeded land to his brother, Peter.

The 1840 Census places James Edward just 6 houses away from his Brother, Solomon.

James Edward said he and his wife lived 37 years together without quarreling. When he went down to Harrison Co, Ind. to marry her, he supposed she had told her parents he was coming to marry her. She hadn't told them and he asked her why. She replied, "I was a little too smart for that. Men do not always do what they say, and what a fix I'd have been in then."

However, they were married, as her sister had been to a Barnett (the two brothers married two sisters). Their mother dreaded to see them go so far away from home. (150 miles) This was her only objection to the match.

After the marriage, they drove back to Putnam Co, a 5 day journey and settled at the Old Mill where he had built a log cabin.

The bed was in one end made by boring holes where poles were put. These were covered with clap boards, then the bedding was put on. They made their own table and cooked on a fireplace.

There they farmed and ran a mill. At first the mill was a partnership of brothers, but in 1845, James Edward bought out his last partner, brother David. He built a new dam and enlarged the mill house. The improvements cost $400.00.

When they had been married 2 years (prob. 1832) they went for a visit to her home in Harrison Co, to see her parents. It took five days each way. They took turns carrying the baby, and stayed for two weeks. They went again in 1837, but in 1857, the brother-in-law, Craven Lane settled the estate and the Barnetts made no more visits to Harrison County.

Eliza was said to have a fine education for a woman of her day. Her mother, Ann Lane went in the best society of Harrison Co. Eliza never was slouchy but wore nice plain things.

James Edward was also on the hog trip to New Orleans with his brother David. For complete story, see David's story(#2).

The Wabash Incident published at Montezuma, Ind, Sat June 10, 1893, has an interesting article about the life and death of James Edward Barnett.

Edward Barnett

"Edward Barnett was born in Harrison County, Ind. June 4, 1811, and died in Montezuma, (Parke), Ind., at 6:30 Monday evening June 5, 1893, making a life of 82 years and one day.

When the deceased was about 18 years old his father, James Barnett moved to and settled in Putnam County, about 12 miles south of Greencastle.

In about a year after his settlement in Putnam Co, Edward went back to Harrison Co., and married the lover he had left behind, Miss Eliza Lane, whom he brought home with him to Putnam on horseback, a distance of about 125 miles. The couple settled on Eel River, where Mr. Barnett purchased and operated a grist and saw mill run by the water of Eel River for some 38 years, and where he accumulated some 200 acres of land and considerable other wealth aggregating in all in the neighborhood of $40,000. During his citizenship in Putnam, he was elected and served 11 years as county commissioner, part of which service was during the eventful days of the war (Civil War). During a part of this service his son William was county treasurer. At his home he begat and partly reared a family of 13 children of which there are two living daughters--Lyda (Prob. Lydia) Throep, whose home is in Carbon, Ind, and Sarah Wittey, of Asherville, Ind, and five living sons--Thomas, now of Missouri; James, now of Iowa; William, now of Utah; Zack, now of Saline City, Ind; and Solomon, now of Terre Haute.

In about 1868, he sold out in Putnam and went to Clay Co, and went into coal mining speculation near Brazil, in which unfortunate venture, together with the death of his wife, he lost all his wealth. His wife died in March 1869, (other records indicate her death was 15 Sep 1868), about a year after his venture in coal mines, after which he went to Missouri and remained a year with his son, Thomas, the latter of whom lived there. Then he returned to Clay Co., and met and married Mrs. Mary Wilson, who was a widow lady of then some children, who survives the deceased, and was 43 years of age at this marriage and who has five children of her first husband living...(names listed)

In the fall of 1874, Mr. Barnett moved from Clay Co, onto O.P. Brown's farm into the house about 2½ miles north of town, on the old canal, near Opedee Ferry, where he lived six years and where his son Lennox, the youngest child, now 18 years old was born. During his residence at this place and about the year of 1879, he was elected superintendent of the asylum of Parke, and in 1881 moved to Rockville, where he resided until he finished his term of office, about two years.

Mr. Barnett took the grip two years ago the 8th of last April from which disease his death can undoubtedly be traced. From that time on his health went down and at times his mind was unsteady. Ten weeks before his death he took to his bed never to rise again, becoming entirely helpless and entirely losing his reason. Death was witnessed by the sorrowing wife, his son Lennox, daughter Lyda, daughter-in-law, Molly Barnett and stepson, John Wilson.

Mr. Barnett has been a member of the Regular Predestinarian Baptist Church about 60 years. He was highly respected by all who knew him, and he always retained a cool and calculating mind and seldom gave way to the least excitement; was often went to for council by his neighbors in matters of exciting nature. His policy in life was to avoid all clashes and trouble with his fellow man, and there probably is not a single instance where he offended a neighbor sufficiently to make him an enemy. He was noted for his easy temper and was kind to his family. During the picnics of the old settlers' here in the year '79 or '80 and preceding years he was acknowledged to be the oldest native of this state attending.

Funeral services were held at the home residence at 12 o'clock noon Wed., conducted by Elder Joseph Skeeter, at 12:30 the remains were taken to West Union and there put on the train for Brazil, to be interred by the side of his first wife. Funeral was attended by the following relatives, besides a number of friends: Wife, and son, Lennox, daughter Lyda Throop, daughter-in-law, Molly Barnett, son Zack, stepsons, Andrew, Elias, and John Wilson, and Mr. & Mrs Will Boyd, and Mr. & Mrs. Nathan Stanley.

Mr. Barnett has 38 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren to his name.

A card of thanks states: The wife and children of Edward Barnett, deceased, wish to thank their friends for their kind assistance to them during their late affliction.

10. Isaac Barnstt (James Otis¹)

Born abt 1814 at Harrison Co, Ind; died _____ md, his niece, Mary Killion (#34), dau. of Mathias John Killian and Nancy A. Barnett. Land records for 18 Sep 1847 show that Isaac was living in Putnam Co, Ind, at that date. Nothing else has been found on the descendents. This land record could also refer to Isaac S. Barnett son of John W. Barnett.

11. Solomon Barnett (James Otis¹)

Born 1816 at Harrison Co., Ind.; died 9 June 1886 at Magnolia, Harrison, Iowa; md (1) 28 July 1836 in Putnam Co, Ind. to Eliza Lister, born 1817 in North Carolina. She was a sister to John Gibson Lister who md Elizabeth Killion (#35).

Solomon owned a farm in Putnam Co. on the National Road. (June 1840). Four houses away lived Susan Lister, an elderly woman whom it is assumed was Eliza's mother. Ten years before (1830), Nathan Lister was also living in the county with one son, one daughter, and his wife. John Gibson Lister also named a son Mathias Nathan which would be the first name of both of his grandfathers. (Both Mathan and Susan Lister would have been born in the early 1790's)

see also p 70
In 1850, Solomon was still living in the same place. John G. Lister and his wife Elizabeth were living three houses away. Probably on the land that had belonged to Susan Lister. Eliza Lister Barnett and her brother John G. Lister both received property at the same time probably upon the death of their parents. This occurred 13 May 1847, and 15 May 1847.

Solomon's property in 1850 was valued at $1,000. The first five daughters were born on the farm at Washington Township, Putnam Co, Ind. In the later part of 1850 or early 1851, Solomon moved his family farther west on a farm near Terre Haute, Vigo Co, Ind. where he lived 2 or 3 years. His first son was born at this place.

Like his two elder brothers, Solomon was also in the hog raising business, but misfortune struck and all of his animals died of hog cholera. With this he decided to move westward again. He went out into Iowa and with his brother, Peter, decided to settle in Harrison Co., in 1853. This was the year of the great land rush into western Iowa. Daniel Brown was the first settler (white settler) in the county. His granddaughter, Lavina Jannett Brown later married Solomon's eldest son, Lewis Scott Barnett. There were 44 other families that also moved into the area at this same time. Most of them coming from the Indiana and Ohio country.

Solomon was a member of the first grand jury held in the county in 1853. His farm and home was located in Magnolia Township near Calhoun, Harrison Co., in Section 5. The family called it the "Juddo Farm". His family also later operated a hotel in Moorhead, Iowa, and kept the old farm at the same time. They also operated a music store in Missouri Valley, Iowa. They sold the store just prior to moving to California.

Solomon's wife, Eliza Lister Barnett, died in the early 1860's. It is not known just where she was buried. There is no record of her being buried by her husband. According to his eldest son, Lewis Scott, the children were cared for by willing friends and relatives in foster homes until arrangements could be made to better care for them himself. Lewis said he went to live with his grandmother. He was only a small boy age 9 years. He said she was Pennsylvania Dutch (This is a term used to describe the German settlers in Penn. Many of them moved to No. Carolina, so the Keller Family might have originated from Penn. before moving to N.C.)

Lewis also said she could not speak English very well. If this were his grandmother, Betsy (Elizabeth) Keller Barnett, she would have been about 83 years old.

On June 13, 1861, Solomon married Anna Eliza Owens. She was born 9 Sep 1843, in Clay Co., Ind., a daughter of Jacob and Eleanor McNeil Owens. She had come west to Iowa with Solomon's family. She was 6 years younger than Solomon's eldest daughter, Susan. Two of her other new step children also preceeded her in age. An unusual task for any woman to step into a family and be a mother to a family, three of which were older than herself. Anna Eliza had ten children. This added to the 8 born to his first wife makes a sizable family of 18 children for Solomon. At the time this booklet was written (1968) three of his children were still living in California.

Solomon died at the Juddo farm, according to his daughter, Coral Inez. He apparently died of a stroke. Relatives in Indiana said he arose one morning and didn't know any of his own family. His death certificate states he died 9 June 1886 at Union Township, Harrison Co, Iowa age 70. Cause of death was "Embolism". He is buried in the cemetery at Magnolia, Harrison, Iowa. The gray stone marker is still in good condition.

12. Lewis Barnett (James Otis¹)

He died 4 May 1968 in Calif.

Born 14 Jan 1817 in Harrison Co., Ind. He married in Putnam Co, Ind., 23 Nov 1837 to Lucretia Jane Witty, born 1822 in North Carolina; Lewis died 1849 of quick consumption at the age of 32. In fact three members of the family all died the same year. Lucretia moved with the two remaining children into the home of James Otis Barnett, her father-in-law. They were living there in 1850 when the census was taken the following June 1850. Lewis had owned property and was living near his two brothers Peter and John in Jefferson Township, Putnam Co, Ind., in 1840.

This was the church where many of the early members of this book worshipped. It was a tragedy for us that the records were burned in the late 1800's, but thanks to Curtiss a knowledge of many of the early people in this area has been recorded. We are all grateful to you Curtiss for your contribution.

Additional Lister information:

Nathan or Nathaniel Lister one of the original settlers of Clay Co. owned a considerable amount of property. In Sep 18, 1833 he transferred some to a man named William D. Lyster (prob. a brother). Nathan owned section 19 and 21 at Pleasant Gardens, Putnam Co, Ind. Letters of administration by Susan Lister 18 June 1836 states her husband, Nathan, now deceased. He had two minor children, (names not listed). However, ten years later, prob. at the death of Susan, John G. Lister and Solomon Barnett both own part of section 19 which had been inherited from Nathan and Susan. This seems to be quite conclusive evidence that Eliza Lister Barnett, wife of Solomon Barnett and John G. Lister were indeed children of Nathan and Susan Lister of North Carolina.
